

National Taiwan Normal University Online Course Teaching Plan

Instructions: According to Article 6 of the Implementation Regulations Regarding Distance Learning by Universities, Departments/Programs offering distance learning courses, shall present a course plan and submit it for approval by the university-level academic affairs committee. The course plan referred to in the preceding paragraph shall set forth learning objectives, the target student group, a course outline, teaching methods, interactive student-teacher discussion, grading and course requirements. The course plan shall be posted on the Internet.

1. Chinese Course Name: 生醫與健康數據分析

2. English Course Name: Biomedical and Health Data Analytics

3. Course start date: Spring semester of 2026 (yyyy)

4. Course review submission record(■ if applicable):

(1) It is a new online course or an existing face-to-face course switching to online course in this semester

(2) It is an existing online course; the latest University's Course Committee approval was in the Fall semester of 2022 (academic year)

(2.1) The 5-year validity period has expired; a new application is required.

(2.2) In case of a major change in the original approved course or if the revision ratio exceeds 30%, reapplication is required.

5. Basic Course Information (■ if applicable)

6. Course Teaching Design and Implementation Method

(1)	Course Goals	This course introduces the use of health data from wearable devices and patient data from electronic health records (EHR) to explore the potential of data driven personal health management and study the role of data in biomedical research and healthcare systems.
(2)	Target Student Group	Students with basic computational thinking and programming concepts, such as students who have studied "Computational Thinking and Programming" at NTNU or its equivalent.
(3)	Prerequisite(s)	Elementary English proficiency
(4)		Course Content Outline: The followings take 16 weeks per semester for example:
